

TASK 5: DESCRIPTION NOTES

In this task, I explored cybercrime awareness by preparing a case study on UPI-based online payment fraud. The case study explains how such scams are carried out, who is usually targeted, and the possible consequences. I also created a detailed prevention checklist with practical tips to help users stay safe online. This task increased my awareness of common cyber threats and taught me how important it is to be cautious while using digital platforms and financial applications.